

NATIONAL TEEN BOOK CLUB

9th June - 7th July 2021

A first of a kind programme, bringing together thousands of 14 to 19-year-olds, from hundreds of state schools and colleges, across every corner of the UK, to a shared, virtual book club.

Over five weeks, young people and school facilitators will connect in the cloud from home, or project in a space on school campus, for our weekly event every Wednesday, 3.30pm to 4.30pm. Each week, we will cover three key elements:

Share a reading experience

Reading the same book at the same pace, thousands of young people discuss in small breakouts online at home, or with their school group on campus.

Hear from award-winning authors

Meeting eminent authors, publishers and writers, gaining valuable insights into careers and a live Q&A to learn more about their stories and their pathways.

Skill up and become a published author

Growing in skills and confidence with activities and guidance to write a 1000-word creative piece, published in our first of a kind virtual library.

Between each week, young people read the next chapters of our shared book, engage in activities and conversation online and make progress on writing their own creative piece.

Every 1000-word creative piece and its young person author is published in our virtual library. All pieces will be read by our expert panel and four pieces will be chosen to be featured and authors will receive an exclusive coaching session with an award-winning author.

Cane Warriors is a short, 192-page young adult book, written in the third person, published in October 2020. Irresistible, gripping and unforgettable, Cane Warriors follows the true story of Tacky's War in Jamaica, 1760.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How much is the programme?

Our programme is entirely free thanks to the contributions of all of our partners. Every young person needs to have a copy of the book club book of course. It is theirs to keep as a hard copy or e-book purchased by the school or college in bulk via Speakers for Schools for a discounted price.

How do my young people access the programme?

The entire programme is hosted in our Google Classroom space. Every young person gets a unique login to that space to engage with our activities and materials. During the five weeks of the programme, every Wednesday we have our weekly event. The schools or college can choose to host the weekly event in a classroom or assembly hall, on campus or have young people join from home. Hosting on campus means the facilitator will log in and project the video into the classroom and interact with their young people for the interactive activities.

Do I need any skills or training in Google Classroom?

Absolutely not. We are doing all the hard work in facilitating the event, so you do not have to. Whether the school or college is hosting each week, or young people are joining from home, it is a simple system to enter the login details we share and then we will guide you through the rest.

What safeguarding is in place for the programme?

Once registered, schools and colleges will receive communications from us. We need the school email addresses of your young people in order to send them their individual log in details to the Google Classroom space. That protects their identity in our classroom as there is no personally identifiable information or contact ability beyond the programme. The Speakers for Schools and Book Clubs in Schools team are DBS checked as the hosts, and everything is recorded in our Google Classroom space as a fully audited platform.

Do we need to join each week, or can we just attend one week?

This is a full programme, and the benefits are felt with the progression across the weeks. Together, young people will meet a diverse range of speakers, gain skills in different areas and work to produce their creative pieces and become a published author in our National Teen Book Club Virtual Library. So, you will need to be with us each week.

Does this hit Gatsby Benchmarks for careers guidance?

We have crafted the programme to support the achievement of Gatsby Benchmark 5 given the skill building and connection to career opportunities and employers.
